1. Are you good at art?
   I would say I’m not. I always find it difficult to express ideas with paintings and drawings. I feel creatively sterile.
   - Find + O + adj
   - Creatively sterile /ˈsterəɪl/: khô khan, không sáng tạo

2. Did you learn art at school when you were a child?
   Yes, I did. I learnt it at elementary and secondary school because it is a compulsory subject in all state schools.
   - Compulsory /kəmˈpʌlsərɪ/: bắt buộc
   - State school: trường công
   - Ở đây dùng thì quá khứ, liên từ (because)

3. What kind of art do you like?
   I’m not really interested in art. However, the one I like best is abstract art. I sometimes search for cubist paintings of Pablo Picasso.
   - Abstract art /ˈæbstræk t/: tranh trừu tượng
   - Cubist painting: tranh lập thể

4. Is art popular in your country?
   I don’t suppose so. Even though it is taught widely at all primary and secondary schools, children won’t pay any attention to the subject once they have finished it.
   - Widely: rộng khắp
   - Pay attention to: chú ý đến
   - Ở đây dùng liên từ (even though, once), bị đồng (it is taught), hiện tại hoàn thành (have finished)

5. Have you ever been to art gallery?
   Actually, I haven’t, simple because I don’t know where they are. Sometimes I visit museums and see lots of pictures, but I don’t consider them art galleries because their main purpose is not solely displaying pictures.
   - Consider A B: xem A là B
   - Solely: chỉ (= only)
   - Ở đây dùng thì hiện tại hoàn thành, mệnh đề danh ngữ với “where”, liên từ (because)
6. Do you think children can benefit from going to art galleries?

Sure, they can. Being exposed to famous works of art can help develop the love for art as well as inspire children with their creativity.

- Help + V	extsubscript{bare infinitive}
- Inspire: truyền cảm hứng
- Creativity: sự sáng tạo
- Ở đây dùng dạng bị động (being exposed), liên từ (as well as)
